

2018 Membership Dues

The DIIA invites all Drakes Island residents and visitors to participate in association programs and events by becoming a member. Please mail the membership form with a check to DIIA, P.O. Box 164, Wells, ME 04090 or drop off with the membership treasurer Dianne Trachimowicz at 382 Drakes Island Rd (207) 646-8107.

* DUES ARE TO BE REQUESTED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE - DUE May 31, 2018 ****

Note: A 'Members in Good Standing List' will be posted on the bulletin board weekly by the Membership Treasurer

HOMEOWNERS (voting membership)

1. Active Membership – this membership allows full participation in all programs, events, use of tennis courts and is a prerequisite for both reserve tennis privileges and both Big and Little Kids Day Camps. Family based dues are intended for one family and homeowners with visiting grandchildren.

Adult children with families of their own are welcome to obtain a separate membership.

2. Supporting Membership – Those individuals who wish to support the association and its mission but who do not actively participate in its events and programs may choose a supporting membership

NON HOMEOWNERS - VISITORS, TENANTS... (non-voting membership)

3. Associate Membership - this membership may be obtained by those visiting a Drakes Island family or tenants who are renting a Drakes Island property. This membership carries the same privileges and requirements as an active membership (without the voting rights) including use of tennis courts and is a prerequisite for reserve tennis privileges and both Big and Little Kids Day Camps. Visitors, tenants and adult children of homeowners with families of their own who wish to participate in DIIA events and programs should obtain an Associate membership, even if the homeowner is an active member.
